Section

- 110.01 License requirement
- 110.02 License exemptions
- 110.03 Application and fees

- 110.99 Penalty

§ 110.01 LICENSE REQUIREMENT.

Any person who shall enter the city with the intention of soliciting for any charity, religious institution, or is engaged in the sale of any such goods, wares, books, magazines, subscription of any kind, merchandise, or other articles of value by solicitation, whether for himself or herself or for any firm, club, organization, business entity, charity, religious institution, or educational institution within the corporate limits of said city, shall, before proceeding therewith, procure from the Clerk-Treasurer a license as hereinafter provided.

(Prior Code, § IV-2-1) (Ord. 1-76, passed 2-2-1976) Penalty, see § 110.99

§ 110.02 LICENSE EXEMPTIONS.

(A) Section 110.01 shall not include:

(1) Farmers, dairymen, traveling representatives of firms, or individuals selling only at wholesale to merchants or who have entered said city at the request of any merchant, institution, or resident thereof, but only to the extent of such request;

(2) Those persons, firms, or corporations who have regularly established routes which he, she, or it service at regularly established periods; or

(3) Merchants or their employees who maintain bonafide places of business or residence within the city.

(B) Any person who is the representative or member of any firm, club, organization, business entity, charity, religious organization, or educational institution within 15 miles from the city, or any person who is acting upon the behalf of any charitable institution having a local representative residing within the corporate limits of the city shall be exempt from securing an individual license, provided, however, that such firm, club, organization, business entity, charity, religious organization, educational institution, or local representative of such charitable organization shall file with the Clerk-Treasurer a letter setting forth the purpose of such solicitation or sale, periods of solicitation or sale, and the names of individuals so conducting such solicitation or sale.

(Prior Code, § IV-2-1) (Ord. 1-76, passed 2-2-1976)

§ 110.03 APPLICATION AND FEES.

(A) The application for such license shall be upon a form provided by the Clerk-Treasurer and shall be completed for the individual by the firm, club, organization, business entity, charity, religious institution, or educational institution for whom solicitation or sale is being conducted, or by the individual if such solicitation or sale is for his or her own benefit. The application shall include the name of the individual, firm, organization, club, business entity, charity, religious organization, or educational institution for whom the solicitation or sale is being made, the business address of such application, the period for which the license is sought, the name, home address, and birth date of each individual for whom a license is sought. The license shall be issued to each individual in person by the Clerk-Treasurer anytime after seven days from the date the application is received by the Clerk-Treasurer, upon verification of the application information and payment of the proper licensing fee as provided in division (B) below.

(B) The fee for each license issued hereunder shall be $10 per person per day, or any part thereof, except such person exempt by reason of § 110.02 shall not be charged a license fee. The license issued hereunder shall be in the form of a card bearing the seal of the city and shall be non-transferable. The license issued hereunder shall be displayed by the licensee in a display device provided with each license and such license shall be worn upon the person of the license holder, readily apparent to the view of any person upon whom the license holder may contact.

(Prior Code, § IV-2-1) (Ord. 1-76, passed 2-2-1976)

§ 110.99 PENALTY.

Any person in violation of this chapter shall be fined $25 for each offense. Each day, or part of a day, thereunder the violation continues shall be considered a separate offense.

(Prior Code, § IV-2-1) (Ord. 1-76, passed 2-2-1976)
