

1989
ORDINANCE #1988-1

An ordinance regulating the use of real estate in the City of Loogootee, Indiana, in certain instances, and providing against maintaining of junk yards and abandoned junk and vehicles and providing penalty for violations.

WHEREAS, the City of Loogootee, has become unsightly and unwholesome to view by reason of abandoned vehicles, machinery, refrigerators, washing machines being left upon real estate, and,

WHEREAS, the maintaining of Junk yards and the leaving and abandoning of dilapidated and unused motor vehicles, refrigerators, washing machines and similar types of personal property constitute a public danger and are detrimental to the health and welfare of inhabitants of said City and to the peaceful use and enjoyment of real estate by said inhabitants,

THEREFORE, be it ordained by the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Loogootee, Indiana, as follows:

Section 1. That hereafter it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to own, maintain or control any real estate within the corporate limits of the City of Loogootee, Indiana, upon which abandoned or dilapidated and unused or junked motor vehicles, refrigerators, washing machines or any other type of machines or machinery are placed, stored, abandoned or dismantled and salvaged.

Section 2. For the purposes of this ordinance, the phrase "abandoned or dilapidated and unused or junked motor vehicles, refrigerators, washing machines, or any other type of machines or machinery" shall be deemed and construed to mean any and all motor vehicles, refrigerators, washing machines or any other type of machine or machines or machinery which are for any reason no longer used or useful in the manner and for the purposes for which said articles were originally manufactured, designed or intended, and expressly includes junking, salvage and storage operations covering such types of personal property.

Section 3. Any violation of this ordinance on and following 30 days after this date is hereby declared and shall constitute a public nuisance.
